A POLITICAL TURNCOAT.

A DEMOCRAT FOR REVENUE
WHO POSES AS SIMON PURD.

Temple, the Traitor, Would Perpetrate Himself on the Administration For Patronage—A Specimen of His Democracy.

FROM THE NEWS, JUNE 17, 1892.

The Way to Win—Democrats are pretending to find courage and hope in the theory that the Republican party is going to prove itself weak in the campaign and at the polls by reason of disappointments and diversions. To hear them talk a foolish person might suppose that the Democracy was in a condition of blissful harmony, to which the heavenly choirs can make only a feeble and quivering approach; that its leaders were already "sentimentalized" of every ambition save only to promote the triumph of pure goodness, and that the universe was about to behold the sweet and solemn advent of the millennium under Democratic auspices.

We cannot admit, even for the sake of argument, that this is really the present state of our friends, the enemy, or bears any resemblance to any conceivable future state of theirs. In point of fact they are much distressed and harassed by their own prospects, realizing that to get a leader they will probably be forced to choose between two implacable foes, one of whom is attended by a squad of ponderous blunder-busses and the other by a company of agile razor-bearers.

(Daily News October 5, 1892.)

OUR CANDIDATE.
In this issue of the News will be found an announcement of Judge G. N. Perkins as a candidate for the legislature from the Third district. The Judge is a colored gentleman, and the News desires to go on record so far as he is concerned. We are for him first, last and all the time. Vote for him, black and white Republicans. Vote early and as often as you can. He will stand like a Hercules for the principles that Lincoln and Seward advocated. Judge Perkins is a typical Afro-American. Nominate Perkins and success will crown the efforts of those who are struggling for advancement.
Trifle with these black skinned brothers no longer. Forbearance ceases to be a virtue when you lock the school house door. Education is just what the colored race are seeking for. This they must have—this is just what such men as Judge Perkins intend they shall have.
Elect Judge Perkins as a legislator and then this newspaper will herald to the world that you Republicans are sincere.

The following editorial from Tompkins' effort of March 30, 1892, well illustrates his record as a democrat and shows conclusively his claims for patronage at the hands of the party.

VOTE STRAIGHT.
Some of the lily-white and democrats are urging voters to not elect negroes to office. One particular reason more weighty than any other that is brought to bear is, that we already have a large negro population, and to select negroes would encourage them to come here in large numbers.

This may be so, and we do not deny it, but they are citizens and fellow Republicans, and every loyal republican will vote the straight ticket, negroes and all.

Further, the negroes are a desirable portion of our population, and we ought to encourage them to come and settle among us. If there are any white trash who do not like these sentiments, let such move out.

The negroes are republicans almost to a man. Many of them are among our most enterprising and useful citizens, and the more of them we have the better for the city and country.

If democrats and "lily-white" republicans don't like it, let such move out.
And in the same issue appeared this another sample of his Democracy:

COME GO TO THE BACK.
If there is a Republican in this city who cannot, conscientiously, walk to the polls election day and vote the straight unadulterated, Republican ticket for city officers, then we want his name, from whence he came, his antecedents; in fact, his pedigree. If there is a Republican in this town who will vote for a Democrat, we want to know him; we have a chrono-meter for him, and it is an even bet that the second never "shot to kill." He must have been a commiserate, a driver of a mule team, or a sixty days' soldier for what there was in it.

Come, men; come, soldiers; come, negroes; let us elect men who stood shoulder to shoulder during the war against those devils who endeavored to break up the grandest galaxy of states, or principalities, that ever combined together for advancement.

These negro-laters, like wolves, conceal themselves until election day is near.
Then they use the taxes collected from the common people to further their interests. Watch them. They are frauds.
They are the descendants of a people who lashed the backs of black men until the red blood flowed down from the cruel cuts satisfied their fiendish delight.

Vote to put Democrats in office. Never.

(Guthrie News, Jan. 17, 1892.)

REPUBLICANS RICK.
A Rousing Meeting and Some Ringing Resolutions—A Ticket on Which Both Black and White Republicans are Represented.

While Dr. Shocum's orchestra made music for a few to trip the light fantastic last evening in the legislative hall, there was a "meeting" held across the street.
It was a meeting in every sense of the word.

Republicans were present.
They were, it is true, disaffected Republicans, and the disaffection arose from the late ticket put in the field by the county convention.

There were present representative men, workers—men who always try to win for the Republican party; men who said in plain words: "Give us a ticket, a Republican ticket that we can, conscientiously vote for," and not a "ticket nominated by the aid of Democrats' dollars."

Here is the ticket that these straight out white and black Republicans put in the field.

It is a good one.
(Here followed the names of the Republican candidates.)
